4-Her in the Spotlight

Elizabeth Taylor is a sophomore at Jones Senior High School and the current County Council President. Elizabeth has been active in the summer program and attended district events in 2015. Elizabeth has taken the lead on parliamentary procedure and is interested in 4-H completing more community service in 2016.

Distributed in furtherance of the acts of Congress of May 8 and June 30, 1914. NCSU & NCA&T commit themselves to positive action to secure equal opportunity regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status or disability. In addition, the two universities welcome all persons without regard to sexual orientation. North Carolina State University, North Carolina A&T State University, US Department of Agriculture, and local governments cooperating.

County Council Members are “Making the Best Better”

The 4-H County Council finished out 2015 on a strong note. Youth attended an officer boot camp in Sampson county, where they learned the ins and out of leading a successful business meeting and were able to meet youth from across the southeast. Coleman Stewart also attended State Council Conference at NC State University. He was able to learn about the affects of drugs on the brain, parliamentary procedure, and what it takes to be a leader.

But they have also been busy here in Jones County. During November, members decorated the Christmas tree at the Jones County Senior Center and sold wreaths as a fundraiser. Members participated in the Maysville and Trenton community parades, placing second in the Trenton parade. Youth also participated in the State Council Health Challenge. They traveled to Defy Gravity, where they spent the afternoon jumping on trampolines and diving into foam pits.

If you are in grades 6-12 and interested in joining the County Council, please contact Mrs. Sarah at sarah_delap@ncsu.edu
